

THE TWILIGHT OF THE STATES

THE PRESIDENT'S COMMITTEE ON ADMINISTRATIVE MANAGEMENT, 1936-37

Left to right: Luther H. Gulick; Charles E. Merriam; Louis Brownlow

Hired by F.D.R., these three men were the central figures in the early day planning for the overthrow of the American government. One of their intentions was to abolish the states and replace them with "regions". They conceived the methodologies and techniques now being used in the gradual step-by-step transformation of the United States from a republic into a link in a socialist world order. They used the word "democracy" as a stand-in word for communist/socialist practices and principles that were to come.

Luther Gulick expressed his feelings for the states in this way:

"Is the state the appropriate instrumentality for the discharge of important functions? The answer is not a matter of conjecture, or delicate appraisal. It's a matter of brutal record: The American state is finished! I do not predict that the states will go! I affirm that they have gone!"

Charles E. Merriam who was the go-between for the Rockefeller family and Franklin D. Roosevelt stated:

"Fortunately, our Constitution is broad enough in its terms, flexible enough in its spirit, and capable of liberal enough interpretation by the judiciary to permit the adaptation of democracy to changing conditions without serious difficulty."

In his book, entitled: "On the Agenda of Democracy," Merriam revealed what is meant by democracy. It means the adoption of communist/socialist principles and goals. Many gradual step-by-step alterations were introduced leading toward the decline and eventual elimination of the state as an entity.
